March 2017

Doing Good. Forever.

Foundation Welcomes New Board Members

Jerry Taylor is Area Operations Manager for The Andersons' Upper Sandusky, a manufacturer of liquid micronutrients and has been with the company for 5 years. Before his current position Jerry worked as a Financial Controller for New Eezy Gro and as a Certified Public Accountant serving the business community.

Jerry lives in rural Upper Sandusky with his wife, Lené. They homeschool their 5 children, who range in age from 5 to 14. When not coaching their children, he has enjoyed serving on several non-profit boards including Compass Ohio, WeCARE for Students, Worldview Warriors and Trinity Evangelical Church. Jerry is excited to serve on the WCCF Board and looks forward to serving the community in this new capacity.

John Hall, a graduate of Carey High School and DeVry Institute of Technology was welcomed to the Wyandot County Community Foundation board of trustees in February. In 1993 he joined his father's business Burson-Bakies Insurance Agency. Upon James Hall's retirement, John acquired ownership and presidency of the agency.

Previously John worked as an electronic technician for Heath/Zenith in St. Joseph, Michigan. While in Michigan he met his wife Autumn. They have been married for 31 years and have four adult children Summer, Benjamin, Emily & Abigail. John is actively involved in the Carey community. He has served on the Chamber of Commerce board. and is a 20 year volunteer of the Carey Fire Department where he currently holds the office of captain.
